Rules of the Auction

The bidding in the silent auction starts at 5:30 p.m. and will continue until the time indicated in the program. The live auction is scheduled to start at 9:00 p.m. Our MC will attempt to make an announcement five minutes prior to the closing of each silent auction table and again at closing. The successful bid is the final bid on the sheet at closing. It will be highlighted and transcribed on a red sheet remaining on the table until you are ready to purchase your item. Please check to see if your bid was the successful bid. A copy of each gift certificate is located at the back of the gift certificate bid sheet for your examination.

- Your bidding number is located on the back of your program. This number must be used to bid in both the silent and live auctions.
- A person making a bid acknowledges by the bid, that they have read and agreed to terms and conditions herein.
- Bids may not be cancelled.
- Silent auction bid increments cannot be lower than the indicated minimum of $5
- The highest bid marked on the bidding sheet will be the purchasers.
- The highest clearly legible bid will be highlighted on the bidding sheets for all silent auction items.
- Successful bid number and purchase amount will be indicated on the red bid sheets of both the live and silent auction items.
- The purchaser will remove the red sheet from the appropriate bid board and bring it to the payment table located in the Rose Room.

New Process for Payment/Picking Up Items Won

Cashiers will be available at 9:30 pm in the Rose Room. Purchasers are to remove the red sheets from both the silent and live auction items they have won; please do not remove the auction items until after payment has been made. The red sheets are to be taken to the payment tables. We accept Visa, MasterCard, American Express, Debit, Cash and Cheques. Originals of Gift Certificates will be given to you at the payment table. A paid slip with all other auction items listed will be given to the purchaser. Please take this paid slip and proceed to the tables where your items are located. Please present the slip to one of the Night of Wine and Roses committee members and they will you bag your item at the table. All sales are final. Purchased items must be removed at the end of the event. Argus is unable to provide transportation of items. The good news... all purchases are HST exempt.

Please visit the Board Member table beside the Air Canada table to speak with a current board member or pick up an informational flyer to learn more about this opportunity.

Special thanks to all of our wonderful volunteers who made this event a success!

Our heartfelt appreciation goes to every business that provided financial support in celebration of the 40th anniversary of Argus Residence for Young People.

We are equally grateful for people like you who care enough to help make a brighter future for at-risk young people a reality – not just a dream.

Thank you for believing in their potential and making a lasting difference in their lives.
